Curricula Management Committee

The Curricula Management Committee makes recommendations for matters related to graduate and undergraduate curricula and assessment.

Committee membership is comprised of two faculty members from each COB department elected by their department colleagues, one faculty member from each COB department appointed by the COB Dean, the three department chairs, the Director of Masters' Programs (ex officio), the Associate Dean (ex officio), and the Senior Academic Advisor (ex officio). Ideally, each of the COB's disciplines will be represented in the membership. At least five faculty members must have Graduate Faculty status. The Associate Dean will serve as the non-voting committee chair. The committee may establish subcommittees.

Member terms are for 3 years with one-third of elected and appointed faculty membership standing for election or appointment each year. Replacement of faculty by election or appointment must maintain five or more faculty members with Graduate Faculty status.

Elected and appointed faculty members may serve multiple terms but no more than two consecutive terms (6 years).
