RELLIS CAMPUS FACULTY SELECTION

(Draft March 5, 2018)

(Revised and Approved by COB Faculty March 9, 2018)

The TAMU-CC College of Business will begin offering a BBA degree with majors in Accounting, Finance, Management, and Marketing at the Texas A&M University System RELLIS Campus beginning Fall 2018. The endeavor will involve the deployment of faculty in each of the major disciplines beginning in Fall 2018. Teaching assignments will include face-to-face sections offered over a 15-week term at the RELLIS campus located in Bryan-College Station.* The remaining faculty workload may involve online courses.

Selection criteria and requirements for faculty interested in teaching at the RELLIS Campus are listed below.

Selection criteria

- Evidence of teaching excellence in online and face-to-face delivery
- Scholarly Academic status or Practice Academic status
- Ongoing research or practice agenda to support sustained faculty qualification
- Commitment to service obligations, including student organization faculty advisor for the RELLIS Campus and/or other service activities

Requirements

- All faculty expectations listed in TAMU-CC Faculty Handbook and other TAMUS, TAMU-CC, and COB procedures
- Attend RELLIS faculty meetings as scheduled
- Attend COB faculty meetings held in Corpus Christi in person or via WebEx or conference call

* The RELLIS model does not include hybrid delivery at this time and is the prerogative of TAMUS RELLIS administration.

Practice Academic (PA) faculty will be considered as allowable under the AACSB faculty sufficiency guidelines.
